NEWS & UPCOMING EVENTS

PAVE IT FORWARD...Welcome begins in the parking lot

Donations for our new parking lot can be given using the yellow envelopes located near the displays, the white envelopes found in the pews (check the box for Building Renewal/Parking Lot), or by adjusting your Simply Giving amount. If you have any questions regarding the parking lot campaign, please contact the church office.

High School Mississippi River Houseboat Trip

This summer high school students are invited on a memory-making journey down the Mississippi River on a 12 person houseboat! We will explore the dunes, swim, slide, boat, laugh, and play in the beauty of God's amazing creation! Enjoy campfires and Bible study on the sandbars as well as intentional community-building activities. This summer's adventure is coordinated with Sugar Creek Bible Camp in Ferryville, Wisconsin. The camp will serve as our home base when we are not out on the river. Our summer adventure is open to all current 8th grade through high school students. Space is limited, and we only have a short window of opportunity to secure two houseboats, so please register right away. Registration forms can be found outside the youth room.

When: July 14-19

Cost: $525, registration and $100 deposit are due by March 13

Food Pantry Volunteers Needed

The Boy Scout food drive will take place on Saturday, March 16. The Food Pantry will need lots of help from 10:00 am-2:00 pm. If you can work any portion of that time, just show up! You don't need to sign up ahead of time. Workers will sort, date check, and store the items collected by the Boy Scouts. It's usually cold and sometimes wet, but a few folks are needed outside for unloading and initial sorting. A tent to keep outside workers a bit more protected will be available. Children who are old enough to help are welcome but must be supervised by a parent.
